About Course

DCA or simply put Diploma in Computer Application is the easiest way before high school pass students to secure that premium IT skill which is high in demand in the job market across India. Although, one has to do a long stretched degree programs to get trained and certified in computing, such as BCA (Bachelor in Computer Applications), BE (Bachelor of Electricals), MCA (Master of Computer Applications, B Tech (Bachelor of Technology), M Tech (Master Of Technology) and so forth, but then we also have DCA course (Diploma in Computer Applications) by which one can build a massive skill set which is properly certified and is widely accepted in the job market all across India.
